Government

Government

The tax burden is too great, and adjustments are needed if Pittsburgh is to become competitive in attracting new industry. Regional government should be explored. Some believe that government tends to obstruct, rather than welcome, development.

There has been continuing debate about county vs. city government. Pittsburgh's 2.5% wage tax is higher than that in surrounding communities, causing people to move to lower taxed Allegheny County communities.

Urban Youth ActionBernard H. Jones

Date : 3/21/91 Discussed how state and federal programs do not offer an independent financial base so that community organizations have the resources to follow through on their projects.

Blue Cross of Western PennsylvaniaDolores S. Wilden

Date : 5/17/90 Talked about the problem of leadership in the community such as values and attitudes.

Community Women's ConferenceDr. Blithe Runesdent

Date : 12/13/89 Government is insufficiently supportive of the Community Women's Conference.

Ketchum, Inc.George W. Rooney Jr.

Date : 5/17/90 Talked about county government, crime and punishment, social welfare, roads, traffic, city cleanliness, and the family unit.

St. George GroupHerb Berger

Date : 11/2/90 The government needs to take a more active role in making taxes competitive. A regional government for Allegheny County is a possible suggestion. The downtown needs a facelift, improved police protection, and the media needs to make Pittsburgh positive.

Golden Triangle AssociationJacques Kahn

Date : 11/7/91 Discussed the tendency of the government in Pittsburgh to obstruct development instead of welcoming it.

H.J. Heinz CompanyKaryll A. Davis

Date : 11/2/90 Discussed leadership, city government, corporation leaders, the need to raise occupation tax and lower amusement tax.

American Civil Liberties UnionMarie Damick

Date : 3/21/91 Discussed employment, the need to clean up the streets, the need for improved public transportation, more police, and more facilities for teenagers.

Neighborhoods for Living CenterMary Lou Daniel

Date : 2/13/86 Discussed the taxing structure of Western Pennsylvania. Taxes support too many people in other areas. The tax burden is too great in the city. We need to share revenues because center city people are too heavily weighed upon.

Mt. LebanonMr. James Cain

Date : 2/12/86 Talked about city government, newspapers, and highways.
